Hello, I want to share with you a few ideas. First of all, I want to congratulate you, because you have reached the 21st letter/article and I want to reveal to you a few things/ideas about the site.

This site was not meant to be attractive and seductive (to give you dopamine, excitement or addiction/ supra-stimulation) in a video/ graphic/ excitement type of way. It is meant for you to find a quiet place on the net/ web to study, meditate, contemplate, analyze, search about the most important aspects of life/ existence. I didn't want to seduce anybody to read the site by any false promises and so on. Because I believe, out of 100 visitors the site will only keep about 10% of the people interested for now. At least at this time, in the beginning. Why is that? Because I am not a "celebrity" (I am nobody... yet I am everybody) and because this site is not endorsed/ sponsored by anybody (no political party or religious organization(s) or any NGO's). This site is 100% free and independent (the idea behind my pen name Freemann)... and because "the truth" is controversial in this Age and Time... And because most people today think in a superficial/ commercial type of way... And to be honest with you. I want to tell you, that I am highly aware that most man and/or woman prefer the easy way out in life (or no life) at this juncture/situation in space and time (today's time)... I know that in the name of truth, I ask you to overcome yourself, which is not an easy thing to do... So, many people will read a few words and they will run/go back into the nothingness/emptiness that has become their own life/existence... back into their own bubble (of lies, illusion, mirage, weakness... into death). But the most important aspect is that those 10%, more or less (can also influence the other 90% of the people anyway... and they will). Maybe together we can bring them back to life... (or at least some of them) back into true life.

So, this 10% that are interested in this subjects/ problems/ solutions/ truth/ reality are the most important segment of the human population. Because they have the most important qualities of life (leadership qualities) like perseverance, caring, integrity, intelligence, will power, a profound way of thinking (they care about human rights, family rights, community rights, etc.) vs. a superficial perception that most people have nowadays in a selfish type of way. The most important quality is the fact that you do have a desire to search and accept the truth/ reality no matter what. I believe that by now, you have understood that those 21 simple letters are like the steps of a ladder that encompasses/covers all life, beginning with some of the "existential problems" and offers the practical, pragmatic direction, of solving them. Like a Guiding Force, like a compass, towards the exit of a human being from “Hell” towards “Heaven”... Think about that.

If a man or a woman identifies and collects all truth (spiritual gold and diamonds) that I have put for you in these 21 steps/ letters/ articles by studying/ learning/ meditating/ contemplating/ analyzing... and by struggling/ working/ training/ fighting/ practicing all of those things, in promoting, in achieving, the complete non-fragmentary universal individual, in the context of his own family unit and of his own community within a strong network of communities world wide by the 15+1 Guide Lines of Man/ Woman... I can state that your knowledge, power and understanding/ wisdom will grow many times/ exponentially, inclusively, all other aspects/ potentialities of your life. You will grow at all levels in your life. Do you understand?

I want to reveal to you one small secret. I have put certain pieces of knowledge/ wisdom in every letter... if you find and unite those pieces in one dynamic whole, it will give you access to infinite being and becoming... it will give you unlimited access to the Ancient Wisdom of All Life in the Universe/Cosmos. But you must work for it. Nobody can give it to you. Only by truth, reality, thinking and effort can you reach for it... Nobody can live your life for you. You cannot buy it with money. Nobody can hack it or steal it for you or from you. You must struggle/ work and fight for it, in many ways. All of your life, in order to achieve it. And if you are a father or a mother, you must teach your children from a young age the 15+1 Guide Lines of Man. Now I want to tell you one more thing/idea.

The idea is simple, I teach you and you will teach (me) and the world in every and each generation. Together we will make the world and people in our one original, true image. We will change everything. We will restore the natural man/woman. We will restore the Natural World... Humanity and The World shall be restored. So be it.

Please read the rest of the letter/article and feel free to read it as many times as necessary... Practice and repetition in truth/reality makes perfect.

No Name God

No Name Religion

The foundation of my religion

The four (4) corner stones in the foundation of my religion are:

1) Investigate/search for the truth inside of myself/yourself and outside of myself/yourself in everything that exists in the world/ Universe/ Cosmos... in all of my life and in all of your life within and without... in being and becoming...

2) Accept all the truth the way that it is... the way that I/you, see it/ discover it and the way that it is in pure existence. If I like it or not, it is irrelevant. If you like it or not, it is irrelevant. I must accept it. You must accept it. Truth is truth and facts are facts. The truth exists with (in) us accepting it or without us accepting it... in being and in becoming... perfection perfects its self.

3) Do only what is right in the light of truth and life by my own mind (conscience)... but only in the light of truth (15+1 Guide Lines of Man) if I can do to the best of my abilities and by my free choice. In my own free will and will power. If I fall, I must get up, again and again, if I can... as long as I am alive and among the living. That's it. In being and in becoming... perfection perfects its self.

4) Receive rewards and punishments for everything that I do or I don't do in the light of truth and life. In being and becoming. In the 15+1 Guidelines of Man. That's it. This is my religion. This is my life. My life is my religion. My religion is my life in truth (God)... in reality (No Name God). From this reality (50% energy and 50% matter) everything begins and unfolds in everything that exists in being and becoming... In the Ultimate Reality/ Universe/ Cosmos/ Nature/ No Name God. May Nature/God bless you all, with sight and life in wisdom (in The No Name Religion).

Please don't forget that I have been born from a Father and a Mother under and in the Christian Religion on the great land of Europa, in this world, under the Infinite Sky of this World... and I believe that I do have a destiny and a mission to fulfill... I also believe 1000% that you also have a destiny and a mission to fulfill. I also believe that our destinies are intimately and closely interwoven just like the tapestry of the world... Think profoundly/deeply about this... and try to find The No Name God in the No Name Religion... in Ultimate Truth and Reality in All Life... in ONE. In Being and Becoming.

Listen very carefully to what I want to say to you/ to tell you/ to share with you and try to understand that if, we, as people, were not in terrible danger of losing even the little freedom that we still do have and even our health and life... If we were not in danger to lose even our very own rights over our own bodies and minds in this so called modern world... where the peoples rights and believes are becoming smaller and smaller by the day... Almost non-existent, vis-a-vis the power of The Beast System (with its corporations, NGO's and politicians/ judges/ police/ army/ governments, etc., which are themselves, also composed/made up of/by normal/abnormal people that find themselves also trapped/en-prisoned/ victimized in/of, by The Beast System just like us, but in different roles...) and the “uncontrolled”/ badly controlled advance of technology... Believe me, that if the situation was not this bad, I would have much preferred to not write about the unpleasant realities of this reality/world/situations and maybe just go to sleep (aka. “don’t do anything”, for example live quietly and anonymously [as a watcher]... a simple life some-where on the Planet) or just write a simple “self help” book that would have not offended anybody. Think about that.

They say “that ignorance is bliss”. Yes, that may be true in some cases or many cases... But it’s not true when something/ somebody wants to harm you, your family and all of your people. It is not true, that if you are in front of a speeding train and instead of doing what you shall do (move away from the tracks) you just close your eyes and think in wishful thinking (delusion, illusion, etc.) that if you no longer see the train... the train has disappeared into thin air and that you are safe. Think about this deeply... Please understand that what I have explained in my writings and in what you have read/ studied/ analyzed and learned from everything that I write here in these 21 letters is not enough to save you and your family... community/ country... In order to try to save yourself, family and your community/ country you must actively represent your interests by mobilizing yourself and others in force... By powerful, determined, creative, intelligent action. It is not enough to just read (theory)... You must actually struggle/ work and even fight (in practice) for your life, for your family and even for your own community and so on... In order to succeed and stop the bad people (predators and parasites) everywhere. Do you understand?

I will now continue in trying to show you the true face of the enemy that we all face in our own struggle and fight... Read and study carefully, deeply and go back to the other letters and unite what I show you “here” with what I have showed you “there” in order to form a complete picture of Saitainai. It is very important for you to be able to create an almost complete picture in your own mind of them/ about them... Study your enemy... and study your friends too... Study everything... Please continue.

Devils & Saitainai... Part two (2)

- They play the victim and they are the victimizers.
- They play the sheep and they are the wolf in sheep clothing.

- They act like they help you with some money (by loans and grants) or other things and then they exploit you ruthlessly (without you knowing... even without you being aware sometimes... even most of the time). Be aware of this.
- They act like you keep them against their own will in a situation... in your own house/ country/ business/ (advantageous situation for themselves) for example. But they have invited themselves “in” all actuality, “in” your life (you have not invited them). And more than this, they don’t plan or want to leave you alone and/ or in peace in your own house/ country/ business, (advantageous situation for themselves) ever. You do get the idea of what I am describing, I believe... They don’t want to live or go anymore until they take everything from you, or your house, land, country, business, etc. Like the unwelcome guests that come to visit you but then they don’t want to leave you alone anymore (parasites and predators). Watch around and you will see, if you have eyes to see and ears to hear.
- They act like they are very good and kind, but they are very mean and cruel inside of themselves in a perverse “hidden” way in reality. In facts/deeds, not by empty words or science fiction.
- They say one thing and do another thing most of the time... even the opposite of what they did promise first time around... They even play dumb if they have to... Like they made a mistake or something.
- They lie (even beg if they have to) and deceive in everything that they do... Everything is “confusing” and not so clear with them/around them, because they say one thing and do another. Watch them... Watch them carefully.
- They act like they are correct for a long time in order to build credit/ trust/ belief... then they strike with “ten-fold power/ losses”/ devastating effects.
- They poison and trip you many times (in secret) until you “fall” thinking that it’s just bad luck or your own fault. Not truly knowing what has affected you.
- They put the blame and fault on you all the time and they have thousands of excuses of why they are never in any fault of their own in order to falsely make you feel guilty of something that is not true. Do you feel guilty if you ask for your existential rights?
- They will turn the whole world against you (they have already done it) and your people (if they can). So, they can see you destroyed, cut down, minimized... They prefer to work through others... By turning people against people... In war and conflict, like they have done with the American Natives in America in the past, by turning one tribe against the other, etc. To them we are the New Indians... nowadays. But it is not something new... it is hundreds and thousands of years of old strategies employed by their types of people against the normal productive people everywhere and in all times. Remember this...

- They will destroy your means to produce food, your tools/arms and defenses in order for you to become a vulnerable dependent/interdependent poor person/people instead of an independent person/people, as a community, or Nation among Nations.
- They want to destroy the middle class and small and middle sized businesses/factories and farms... They also desire for everybody to not own land or their own house/ business, etc.. They desire for everybody to pay rent to them and instead of growing their own food, to buy it from them (from their corporations). By the way, now they want to give us worms instead of steaks... Did you know that? We taught them and gave them steaks when they were hungry... and now they want to repay us (the creators, the engineers, the warriors, the workers, etc.) with worms... Shame on them... They tell us, you will own nothing and you will be happy... Shame on them... How about this? How about we will just crush them just (justly) like the worms that they are... How about that? The time is coming. Watch and prepare your self. The storm is coming.
- When you ask them something, they respond with the answer to another question or with another question. They never answer you correctly in truth. And they laugh... in your face type of laugh... Watch them.
- If you are an honest person, you are a transparent victim for them if you put your trust in them. And if you are naive and trust them you are finished... In front of them, by them... you are done... You are 100% their victim for sure. Your kindness and goodness are taken as weakness and stupidity. That's why they laugh... at you.
- They are something like Dr. Faust and Mephistopheles rolled into one powerful personage of pure evil. Think deeply about this. Study the two personages... Learn.
- You help them many times, but for a reason or another, when you need help from them, you will always receive an excuse (a nice one)... basically “empty words” instead of real help from them. Or highly conditional help, like an interest rate (procentual % profit, etc.) or something. They always want something... Always something to get you down in the “The Fall” in “The Abyss of Man”.
- They will do their best by empty words (compliments, titles, medals, etc.) to seem like they are good friends... sometimes even with small/or relatively large(?) amounts of money (bribes), favors, etc. It depends on that specific situation... But never something substantial or truly meaningful of real importance in the long run/strategy of things. Only lies and illusions... by deceiving.
- You will always have second thoughts that something is not right with them in the dynamics of that relationship if you begin to see or when you observe them, but in your own goodness/ ignorance (good intentions mostly) by assuming that they are good people like you... you will find excuses for them and will force yourself to believe them. Even when your instinct/ intuition tells you the truth. That is part of our corruption, “The Fall”. Our fault... our fall in “The Abyss”.

- They don't trust anybody (they always need contracts) but demand or ask that everybody must trust them. When you trust them, you are done, finished...
- Everything you will try to accomplish with them will never get accomplished if it is something good, only bad things will happen around them...
- The only thing that you can accomplish with them is to con (harm) or steal from somebody with them, if you want to do that (like many businessman/ politicians, etc., do nowadays) for money, etc. But watch out when the time comes to divide the spoils/ money. Unless you beat it out of them... Or they are afraid of you... Or they need you... you will not get your money out of them easily. You will just turn up dead by drugs/alcohol or suicide/ health issues/ accidents, etc.
- In the end, after you work with them innocently (or not so innocently), they will try to trick you/ poison you/ back stab you or set you up for your "fall" of any kind. Usually in the hands of your (political and/ or real) enemies... by "mistake" of-course.
- They try to leave you tired, without resources, in big trouble, so you will be distracted and forget about them and what they have done. One example: Election promises/ acting rings a bell? If you survive and find them, they will say that you are lucky and they will tell you that your problems are small compared to what has happened to them. Or they will tell you the "real" problems, that "they" will identify for you, that you must solve together with them...
- They will send you on a fools errands, a false lead (smoke screen)... They will even ask how come you didn't come to help them without any shame... They will even ask you for help again. If you remind them that they actually owe you... if you receive something, its going to be just peanuts. They will try to con you again if they can, without shame. All over again, from the beginning without any scrupulous intentions on their part and without shame/pity... They have no shame or pity because they are incomplete... without a conscience. Watch out for them and you will see them...
- It all begins with some kind of "opportunity", promises, illusions... with lies, with a mirage, etc. Like political promises for example or stock exchange promises, or promises for undeserved greatness, or unrealistic health promises, etc. Something to catch you... on the hook.
- They will do this over and over again to new people or by an other (new) story to old customers (aka. old victims).
- They do it periodically by changing places/ stories and disguises... but they always come back on their hunting grounds... just like the cycle of the seasons. Just like the plague. They will always visit you just about at harvest time, most of the time.
- They work mostly through insinuation, by pushing/ paddling influence, infiltration, false information, manipulation, bribes, by (corrupted) authority, by (false) experts and through the establishment, rituals, traditions, etc.. By "expert" authority??? Through human conditioning, by habit, by precedent, and by the power of the laws/institutions.

- They are a work of art! Aren't they?

When they want to get nasty... which is most of the time if you don't do what they want by corruption/ bribes... they will put pressure on their victim(s) by compromising information, evidence, by manipulating their "victim(s)" needs (hunger, lust, fear, terror, homosexuality, bisexuality, pedophilia or by illicit private affairs, etc.) by black mail, by threats of any kind and if necessary even violence. Eventually they will use shame tactics, social pressure, the removal of rights and freedoms (even of life and liberty) by discrediting a person socially, by demonetizing a person, by demonizing a person, by character assassination, by discrediting a person, by accusing him or her of having a bad character, of being stupid, a liar, a nut with psychological problems or even better a person of low moral/ ethical character... even a criminal. If all of this doesn't work, they will take violent physical action against that person (their enemy or victim) by poison, by disease, by "accident", by using some trumped up charges against them, by taking their freedoms or life, etc., if they can.

So they work upfront and behind your back... in the light and in darkness. By any means necessary... By communism, by socialism, by capitalism, etc. Understand?

Watch out, the satanas/ psychopaths are hidden in plain sight... everywhere... as well as in ambush/hidden in secrecy... Some of the methods they use are simple things like advertising, sales tactics... public campaigns, social media, movies, music, modern arts and media of any kinds, etc. But their arsenal is full of nasty surprises.

In order to stand up to them, fight them, you need to stand up to them for your rights by defending the rights of all people, democracy and the correct (anti-corruption, anti-monopoly) laws. In numbers and truth you will find strength and power. And in God... In ethics/ integrity and in morality... If you are bold, brave enough, you will maybe even find infinite strength, power and justice (depends on how strong your belief is)... But not all the time (if your belief weavers)... There are no guarantees... Life is an assumed risk every day... But if you believe in a higher human being, in the law of Nature/God... In the rights of the natural working positive human beings (family) that live in a community towards the common good, etc... You will have the standing chance to fight and repel/defeat them. ATTENTION! It has been done before many times and in many places...They are not invincible. They have lost all the time when hard working people/families have wake up and decided to fight them. Always in all times. We can see it, find it, in the small print of true history. But If you fight them alone, your chances are not so good... Because they will bushwhack/ back stab you... They never fight fair and square...

One on one, they are not usually too strong or brave (exceptions do exist among them) ... But they will pay some of the best fighters from among us, and many of them, in order to stop and overcome you, if they know you, and if they can... They will put many people/ institutions/ organizations (obstacles) between themselves and their "victims"/ (you) the honest working normal people. They will try to prevent your opposition to their wrong doings systematically and all the time by corrupt laws (favorable for them)... in order to keep you down... Understand?

You must work and fight them by preparing yourself, your family and your community... By being united in a united front against them. This is the only way that has helped normal working family's/ humanity to survive, be free and happy all or most of our existence from the very beginnings of times as human beings up until now against them. It is the only way and the only true social contract that we do have in our/this life. It is based on being united (in a community) and on sweat and blood... which is the only true price of life. This is the truth. Facts not fiction.

Motivations and outcomes

All the difference in between people is in their own motivations and in what outcomes (results) they desire to do/ or accomplish in reality... Good or bad... You shall judge the tree by its fruits only... If the fruits are good, the tree is good... If the fruits are bad/poison, then the tree is bad. Cut it down... I don't need bad trees in my garden... Do you? Only the good fruits tree is useful and need it in my garden... Remember that.

In the human spectrum of behaviors possible we can state in plain language that at one extreme is the "bad person" (which can most often be healed... but not all of them) and at the other end of the spectrum is the "good person" which can be strengthened most of the time. If we think in mythico-religious language about those two (2) extremes (duality) we can say that at one end of the human spectrum we will have the most evil-bad people on the planet and we refer to them by the names of: Son's of Satan, devils, Satana, the evil ones, the dark ones, the sons of darkness, etc. At the opposite end of the human spectrum we have the most brave, good-altruistic people on the planet and in mythico-religious language we refer to them as: The Son's of God, we also refer to them as Angels, The Angels of God, The soldiers/warriors of God, The Son's of Light, the true Saint's and Martyr's/ Heroes, etc. And they can also be warriors like the Archangels Michael and Gabriel... Those two, for example, did throw out the "bad ones" into their "Fall" from their own community/ heaven a long time ago, in the past. By physically fighting them... (but not alone)... with an army of (voluntary) volunteers/ Angels/ Warriors, from their own community/Heaven... The Sons of God are Physical warriors and Spiritual warriors at the same time in ONE total non-fragmentary whole... Those are the True Son's of God... the true warriors. So prepare your self.

If you begin to understand those two (2) extremes... as opposing concepts/ideas...

Pure evil	vs. pure live
Pure dark	vs. pure light
Pure destruction	vs. pure construction
Pure nothing	vs. pure everything
Pure death	vs. pure life
Pure no thinking	vs. pure all thinking
Pure against life	vs. pure for most life
Pure disease	vs. pure health
Pure nihilism	vs. pure being and becoming

“You will know them by their fruits”.

When you begin to understand (all of) those two (2) extremes and opposites of life positions on everything, then you will understand, that all motivations and outcomes (results) are the existence of these two (2) main groups of emotions.

- A) On one hand, you have sympathy and love for all or most life “in truth”.
- B) On the other hand, you have antipathy and hate for all or most life in “the lie”.

Positive love vs. negative hate.
Positive existence vs. negative non-existence.
Affirmation of existence vs. the negation of existence.

In order to reach (or begin to be) in one of those two (2) “extreme positions” (hating all life or loving all life) you must become a true extremist of sorts... You (probably) have to pass through very strong experiences/situations and/or have very strong/powerful emotions (negative uncontrolled animalic strength/weakness/cowardliness/ arrogance/ greed/ laziness/ lust/ envy/ fear/ hate/ anger/ revenge or positive controlled human discipline/ simplicity/ activity/ integrity/ bravery/ strength/ generosity/ sportsmanship/ empathy/ justice/ altruism/ intelligence/ love/ wisdom) in your life... As a person you must be built from... first of all... a stronger material and life essence/ energy than most normal mortal men or women possess today anyway... The life trials, and training/ studying... experiments and experiences that are required, are more than a normal man or woman can endure normally without being badly hurt/ dying or going crazy (in trauma/ suffering, like in war or prison for example). So, in my opinion/ experience most normal men and women will exist all of their life somewhere in between those two (2) extreme positions. In a constant struggle between those two (2) position/forces that battle inside of most normal men or women, as well as in the outside world. All of those temptations (!?). Think deeply... In which direction do you want to go. Death or life? To be or not to be? Understand?

I have explained to you those things in order for you to see more clearly and for you to better understand in what position you are. With probability of 90+++% you are right now as always involved daily in a battle/ war on multiple fronts inside of yourself (divided) and outside of yourself (conquered)... This is happening if you want it to be so or if you do not want it to be so... if you like it or if you do not like it... if you accept it or not... Its happening anyway... in fact. Unless you accept the truth and change yourself..

If you know it consciously or if you don't know it in a conscious way... it happens anyway, if you desire or not. This is the truth for most human beings. Facts not fiction.

From those multiple fronts of battles/wars I will explain to you two (2) of the most important fronts/battles/wars that you have to cover if you want to reach from death and darkness towards life... towards pure existence in the light, love, life affirmation of Nature/God.

1) First battle ground/war is inside of yourself. Your true self against your false self. Reality versus illusion/mirage/lies. Reality versus your "bubble". Facts not fiction...

2) Second battle ground/war is outside of yourself. The war of the world. You must understand that in the war of the world, you as a normal mortal person... if you want it/ like it or you don't want it/ like it, you are caught between Satan's (a few, a minority with many minions at their command, the bad people) and God's Warriors (just a few with Nature/God and true human beings rights on their side) that want to help you. Think about that. We/ You the normal/good[?] people are also many, the most, the majority. Yet, you are caught between/ under the Sons of Satan Spells (materialism, lies, illusions, exploitation, slavery, animal-ism, nihilism and Saitainai with their minions) in a cycle of exploitation. And the Son's of God, that want and desire to help you the people (as well as themselves) towards a better, more correct life, in Democracy and Basic Human Rights (with positive/ constructive responsibilities) in their/ our own communities/ countries, etc... towards a Natural/Godly way of life... So what is going to be? The choice!? Belongs to you... Facts not fiction. Reality please.

By choosing which one of these forces you support in your daily life, you are directly influencing the balance of the world. If you help the Sons of God, the world will become a better world... Understand? If you don't do anything... the world will become worse under "their" influence. If you help "them" is even worse... It is like digging your own grave... before your own execution. But, of course, they will promise to pay you good in order for you to dig the grave... some times they even pay... They don't like to work too much, or manually. So, yes, if it is necessary for them, they will actually pay you to dig your own grave... Kind of smart for them... Don't you think? Do you understand what I am telling you? Open your eyes.

Now, with those things in mind you must understand clearly that the Sons of Saitainai have their own motives/motivations and desired outcome (results) in their own mind and they will appeal to any trick in the book in order to push your buttons. By playing, encouraging your fear, greed, arrogance, ignorance, lust, jealousy, inferiority complexes, envy, desire for revenge and domination, etc... In other words everything bad in you that you can think of it... and that you cannot even begin to think of it, ever in your life... Temptations much...? Manipulation much?

They usually desire from you a few outcomes (results) which can be resumed to this. First of all, they desire for you to worship them and their power, in submission. Second of all, they desire from you, to hurt other good people and yourself through your own actions (they like for you to hurt even "their bad people"/ minions... its good for them and for their business) it increases their own power over you (by reciprocal hate/fear) and over their minions... Even over their own politicians/"experts",etc., and their own people which are also expendable (just like a preservative...that you use to do your thing, then you throw it away). What a good friend (your best friend?) it was (that preservative) to you, when you were using it to do your thing...Mystery of mysteries...Like a preservative they use them...If you do understand, it means that you have succeeded in seeing. Third of all, they desire to hurt you in known and unknown ways in order to control/exploit you and your family until they suck all the life energy from you and your family and community in disarray and confusion (or in total order, in submission) or both (order at the top, and disarray and confusion for the rest of the society)... Depends what is more advantageous for them at that time/place (in history)... Fourth of all, the more they cut you down, your family and all the normal people to pieces, minimal levels of existence, humiliate you... the more powerful they feel and the more power and money and materialistic ways/ profits they reach/ gain. Including that in this way they keep their minions in check and all the people fighting each-other. Divide and conquer by a thousand ways is their evil way. Poor little people...

Primarily, human suffering gives them pleasure, satisfaction and victory. A few simple examples. The arm dealer is happy when the war comes, he sales more arms and gets richer/ stronger. The big pharma gets happy when people are sick, or depressed, suffering and they of-course get very rich/ stronger to. The rich people are happy when a big depression strikes. Because they can buy everything cheaply, land and property (and trow you out in dispossession and need to work/ slave for them)... At a fraction of the real cost and the small/medium businesses go up in flames (no competition for them). In order to get richer and stronger at your expanse. In a direct opposition to the interests of your family/ community/ country well being. In the mean time they tell you that they are your friends and that they love you so much that it is their duty to care for you... to inject you... to make you better, a trans-human mini-god/ (monster?), etc... All of it, because they love you so much. Understand? They love you so much, that they want to transform you in a "mini-god"... Think about that... they love transformers... Do they love you the way you are? They love you to death... as a figure of speech... of-course.

Did you drink some coffee today? I hope your coffee was good. How is the weather were you are? Look at the sky and the clouds right now for at least one minute please and you will see that the "Great Artist" has created today a new master peace... A new painting on the whole sky. Admire it a minute if you can. Here, were I am, the sky clouds are cloudy and dark... and moving fast, windy... but I love them anyway. They have also announced that a big storm is coming. So I have to prepare for the on-coming storm... I love the storm too...I love all life...Think about that.

And yes if you study/ look you will observe that those people do collaborate and collide in a synchronized powerful way world wide. A few quick examples will suffice. If you poison the land with herbicides, insecticides, etc., more people will get cancer so you can sell more drugs world wide. It is a cycle. Understand? If you send people to war you can sell just about anything...petrol, chemicals, drugs, arms, foods and so on...Then you can keep the hospitals/ prisons, gangs, mafia, police, politicians, going in a big show, etc. The show must go on...

Now lets speak/mention the Son's of God a little bit... In my opinion/ life experience I can say that they have the hardest job of them all...Why is that? Because first of all they have to speak the truth and they feel your pain (they suffer for you)... The truth hurts/ insults/ offends most people in their illusions/ mirage/ protective bubbles... So, everybody or most people gets pissed off at them...and try to hurt them... The Son's of God have other motives and desires, outcomes (results) that they strive for... Which generally speaking, is to try to stop Saitainai and his minions from harming the people and the animals/vegetation, all life on the planet (The Creation)... Which includes you, your family and your community. But as you probably know, it is harder to motivate a man to do a good deed that takes more thinking and effort... free or even for money. Than it is to motivate a man to do something bad that it is easier (more comfortable and convenient), mostly for money/greed or under threat of hunger, under pressure, fear, terror, etc. Basically it is much harder to paint a whole house, than to just come at night and spray some graffiti on it, vandalizing it and destroying that paint job. It is much harder to cook some good food, than to come and spit in it or to put something bad in it. It is much harder to dig a water well than to throw some poison in it...Understand? Most of the time it is much harder to help people than to harm them, and so on. This is the truth. Facts not fiction.

But now I don't want for you to get the wrong idea about the Son's of God, the warriors...No!... even if one of them speaks softly with reason/logic in truth, it doesn't mean that there is no strength there. No! I want to tell you this, when and if the Son's of God go to physical war, many sons of Saitainai and their minions will fall. Only One Son of God is worth many Satana's... They are a force of Nature/God. One was killed 2000 same years ago and for that millions of people have pay the price/ retribution all this time. Have they learned something from that? The retribution/punishment is terrible for anyone that harms a Son of God... for millions of them... Believe me... This you must remember for ever. It is the truth. You must understand that the main job of the Son's of God is to teach you to overcome your false self... to heal yourself... Mostly to heal the blind (help them to see) and to bring back to life the dead, in being and becoming... Think deeply about that... Understand this, if I want to help you heal yourself... What it will be the advantage in killing you?... the sick man... In order to kill the virus from inside of you? Think about that for a minute. Do you understand now why some people don't understand the true power/great power that the Son's of God must control and possess in order to help people and to stand up to the evil in this world by themselves in truth (?). Do you? I hope that you do understand. I hope that you personally being able to see better now, will make the conscious decision to rise in the light/truth/ right of life and help... Yes, I hope you will. So be it. Maybe, even, you may become a Son of God yourself. Think about that. Who are you? Do you know?

21...why 21? I will give you three motives (a trinity) for $3 \times 7 = 21$

1) At the age of 21 I became aware for the last time irreversibly that everything that I have been thought up to that time/age was a lie/ illusions (truth mixed with lies) and I decided to search and find the truth/ reality for my self... no matter what will happen to me. I was aware from a very young age, from about four (4) years of age that the world is full of hypocrisy/lies, but I didn't have the force/ the power to break the illusions from my mind until I turned 21 years of age when I did begin my conscience journey in truth and I never turned back... Also very important for me is the fact that I begin my current mission in the year 2021 Anno Domini... In the 21st century... Because of that choice, that I made back then, when I was 21 years of age and all my life struggles/ searching and findings... I can now share the truth with you in truth. Only facts, not science fiction. Contrary to popular opinions about many realities and opinions (blah, blah and so on). When you do climb the big mountain... if you succeed. You will find at the top only one great big truth on any mountain of the world. And that truth is that you will find and see the Great Infinite Sky... Aka; the BIG NATURAL LAW OF THE UNIVERSE... COSMOS... It is called GOD in little good normal productive people language. Understand? Two (2) different languages (religion and science) that try to describe and find meaning of One True Reality which we all call life. Think about that.

2) You must study and find out the truth about United Nations Agenda 21 and about all the other programs (AGENDA 2030, blah, blah, etc.) that they have for the "enhancement" of human life on planet Earth/ Terra and the large quantity's of money our countries give to them... We pay this private organization that dictates a "private agenda" by all kinds of "contracts" to "our" (?) elected officials/ Governments. And we shall ask our self's; If they serve any good purpose for the European people and North American people or for the Slavic people in general first of all... and then we shall put/ask some other questions also... Many questions. If they do not serve us... then they have to go (we fire them if necessary) into nothingness, in nihilism. So be it.

3) I have given to you 21 letters as a gift (in the 21st century) in order to help you to see more clearly and to come out of your "sleep"/ death so to speak... So, please wake up and smell the coffee. We have lots of work to do. Together united in truth and reality. Important for you now is to follow and study all of the letters... but with predilection you must take the 15,16,17,18,19,20, and 21 letters to their logical conclusions... to the end... "Until the fat lady sings"... and "till the kingdom come". Do you understand?

Please study and train yourself, work, struggle and fight as necessary in your life. And now that you know that we are in a war of the worlds... between darkness/ death and the light/ life... I hope you will become active... an agent of good, of live against the evil/death... (live-evil... are direct opposites don't you see?) The Ancients were smart/wise... Free will? Choice? What is going to be? Tyranny or Democracy? Life or death? Please tell me.

May God help the blind to see and the dead to rise to life. So be it.
Please come with the true people for the true people in truth. So be it.

One more thing if you are among the first 1% or the 10% that have reached the 21st. letter and you understand most of those things. Please make yourself the commitment to help the other people around you or as many people as possible to find the truth by helping them to read my letters for humanity and all the other helpful/truthful information that is possible. From all truthful sources that you find in truth. Facts not fiction, please. You can use my letters, copy them, protect them, send them to one another, keep them safe, use them for group studies, as long as you acknowledge my work, thinking and effort that I have done (in 49 plus years of study/ working and training, in struggling/working and fighting many fights) and mention this web site and my name in truth. Respect me and I will respect you. You must always use them (the letters) for good in order to teach as many people as possible the truth. Thank you for your help in advance.

In a way, I have a feeling, that I have covered a lot of truth in the 21st letter, but somehow, I must say or do something more for you in order to help you, to encourage you more... it is like I want to give you more power and well being for you and for your family... I feel like I shall do more for you... Because I know, that if you look at so many problems (all the problems) in the world today, you can begin to feel (as a figure of speech) like Don Quixote/Quijote De La Mancha and the Wind Mills (the main novel character) of the famous Spanish novel writer Miguel De Cervantes written in 1605 (part one of the book) and in 1615 (part two of the book)... If possible, read the book(s). So, as you can see... I am aware that between "the truth" and the current situation in the world of today exists a huge disparity/conflict between normal working people real life and "The Beast System"... I know that it is a "not so equal fight"... I know that they seem to have "all the guns" (but they don't) on their side in a way (but don't worry about it too much for now) and that I have/we have "the word"/truth/God on our side. Which by the way... is no small thing... It is the power of the world after all. So, in order to encourage you, I want to tell you this... I have personally fought as "the underdog" a few times in my life and most of the time (surprise), I won. I even surprised my own self (and others) a few times. But I will tell you that when I did what seemed to many the unthinkable, the unbelievable... I, myself... was inspired by a few stories from the human past (history) which gave me the "inner power" to overcome myself (fears, etc.) and to grow in my strong belief in myself (in truth) and in my own destiny, in Nature/reality/God... As well as my believes/decisions to die trying rather than live in shame as a coward. Today is a good day to die, but it is also a good day... a better day to be alive... ALIVE! I have a fear/shame of letting fear control me and/or to be seen as a cowardly/unworthy person. It is part of my personal fight with my own self. Do you understand? I am ashamed of myself... if I don't do what I think I should do. There is that old saying "A man must do what a man must do". I don't know if I explained it the best... but there you have it. This is the truth... facts not science fiction.

A few of the stories that have inspired me in my life are those:

1) David and Goliath (he fought in that fight for the survival/defense and domination of his people over the Philistines and for personal glory/conquest). Right or wrong? Facts are facts. He won against the odds.

2) Spartacus the Thracian fought/ revolted against the Roman oppression/ inequity (he was also crucified for the revolt and for freeing the slaves... for fighting for human rights, etc... crucified in the same way as Joshua of Nazareth, but for different motives/ actions...). An amazing man. He was betrayed by the money lenders of his time. Search.

3) Joshua of Nazareth/ Jesus Christ, he spoke the truth against corruption and for human rights. He was an extraordinary human being/Son of God. He also showed to the blind how to see and taught to the walking dead to rise in being and becoming. (For this he was crucified by the orders of the priests/ Pharisees/ Caiaphas the Jewish high priest of the Sanhedrin and under the king of Judaea Herod, by the governor Pontius Pilate of the Roman Empire in the province of Judaea). I don't need to make too many commentaries... you must judge for yourself what you think about his life and the fact that he stood for love among human beings... not for dominating/conquering and destroying human beings. Think for yourself. He did everything without a sword and only by the power of The Word. Because of his teachings, 2.4 billion people try to strive to better themselves in a more humane life worldwide... nations have been built with these ideals in mind by the people inspired by his teachings. It is also true that people in his name have used the sword... that is the truth... facts are facts. Think about that.

4) Decebalus the king of the Dacians against the aggression/ conquest of the Roman Empire of The Ancient Kingdom of Dacia (for the defence/ existence of his culture and his people). He also died for his people, betrayed, sold out. A real man/warrior/king.

5) El Cid-The Lord or El Campeador-The champion of 1043-1099 Anno Domini, Spain (this guy was fabulous in his way... he fought on all sides... but mostly against Islam for the Christian Culture/freedom of his people).

6) Stephen the Great/ Christian Warrior King from 1457 to 1504. This guy was fabulous, he fought to defend the Christian culture/religion and people against all odds for 47 years as a King Christian Warrior on all sides/ multiple battles/ fronts/ wars... but mostly against the Islamic oppressive armies that were attacking/invading European lands and he was referred to as Athleta Christi,"Champion of Christ". He was considered one of the military geniuses of Europe of his time. He cried with tears in his eyes when Constantinople fell under the arms of the Islamic Turks. He died of old age.

7) Mahatma Gandhi of India. A true freedom fighter for human rights of his people and culture against the oppression and exploitation of The Great British Empire. He was also assassinated for his ideas and fight. But he did succeed against all odds.

8) William Wallace a great Scottish man, (freedom fighter for the independence of his people/culture) from the people for the people, (that was eventually Knighted) for his fight against the English oppressive armies of occupation of Scotland. He fought against tyranny and for this he was betrayed/killed/executed in a horrible way... I think even worst than Jesus or Spartacus. This I must remember. If you can read and inspire yourself from those people as well as many others that have fought for human freedom and rights, do it. Inspire yourself, learn, study, prepare yourself. The world can be a harsh place... That's why we must make it better in the light of truth and for pro-human rights/life. So, humanity will be able to live as human beings in communities, not as exploited animals. In order to learn more about human perversion... in order to defend yourself from it, I suggest that you read those two books: The Prince (IL Principe) by Niccolo Machiavelli (1469-1527 AD) and The Art of War by Sun Tzu approximately 544 B.C. - 496 B.C. Those books/ information shall be a requirement for you in order to try to fulfill directive number (3) in 15+1 Guide Lines of Man. Study, train, prepare your self in order to do what must be done. I hope that I was able to encourage you at least a little bit. Good luck to you and I hope you will find the power to move forward with the power of Nature/God in God/Nature.

In the end, even the blind shall see... even with blind eyes if necessary, and the dead shall rise... to life. Wake up! And walk... in All Life. In Being and Becoming... Perfection perfects its self in perfection... So be it.

Today the sky is beautiful... the storm has passed... and the Sun has come out in between a few, some very beautiful, soft, puffy, white clouds... Radiant... Warm... It is absolutely beautiful... Crystal clear... Amazing! Wake up!

But please read the small print of history (not the politically correct variants) in a few variants/opinions if you really want to learn the truth.

Until next time good luck to you... May God bless you, with respect Robert Freemann.
