

Free Mann speaks

Knowingly or not, if you believe me or if you don't believe me, I will tell you this; you have most of your life paid lots of money (time and life) to be lied to...Maybe you shall pay some money (time and life) to be able to study, discover and learn (accept) the truth... reality. Being and becoming.

Law 1) Reciprocal (exchange) is (one of) the highest laws in the (human) life/world. You do me good, I do you good. You do me bad, I do you bad. This is the truth from the spiritual plan(thinking) all the way to the physical plan(action).

Law 2) Everybody wants to dominate if they can and desire to have victory. Only if they are kind of equal in forces, like a balance, they will avoid the confrontation...or if they understand democracy, community and reciprocal respect/love.

Law 3) Because not everybody is equal in abilities and capabilities, a hierarchy always exist in all human (and animal) groups. It also exists in-between groups of all kinds. If a group can dominate with impunity (without retaliation from the other group) it will dominate without shame and pity. We can see it in history.

Law 4) In the group hierarchy, a balance of power must exist between the leaders (a few) and the population (the great majority). If the leaders are too powerful, they will become Tyrants (masters of slavery – inhuman exploiters). If the population will have too much power and freedom without responsibility it will become chaos, corruption, decadence...anarchy. With many abuses of a predatory, parasitic nature. If the leaders and the population are kind of evenly matched under a correct simple set of Democratic Laws and believes (not complicated or confusing) and they have mutual interest of keeping the peace and prosperity in the community, they will have a working democracy. The leaders will be changed through rotation based on their deeds and merits. They will never have or be permitted to have a monopoly of power. Normally the population desires some kind of equality and a “win-win” type of situation for all. Humane democracy, in a balance of power, is the “normal-normal” for human beings, if a balance of power exists (in a normal community). Humane Democracy.

Law 5) When an imbalance of power exists, bad things will happen. Social uprisings, revolutions, wars, tyranny, exploitation, police, prisons, mind police, Corona Pandemic Politics... etc. Bad stuff will happen.

Law 6) Tyranny or Democracy? What is it going to be? You cannot change the past, but you can influence/change the present and the future through your spiritual power (your thinking) and the material manifestation of your physical actions or absences of actions/reactions in the material world. Remember the World is 50%energy and 50% matter (50% Spirit and 50% matter). Life, Liberty and Happiness have always belonged to those that are brave enough to accept reality (the brave) and adapt to it. The past, present and future belongs to those who struggle and fight (work, study, train, sacrifice, live life, practice makes perfect, etc.) in order to survive, be free and happy for themselves, family, friends, community, tribe, nation, coalitions, the planet and the world...and so on to Nature/God in Nature/God...

There are more laws and guide lines, but for now I want to invite you, first to wake up, and accept reality, the way it is (if you are not yet fully awake) and then (because the world is full of many problems...), please rise in the light of Nature/God and be strong and don't be afraid...

Remember the saying: "A coward dies a thousand times/deaths, a brave man only dies once (or two or even three times, I have to say). I will explain that statement in an other time. Anyway, it is better to die once or twice or three times in a life time then to die a thousand times...

If you are already awake and strong, it means that you have studied reality, you have worked some good things out, you have fought some battles, you have trained a lot, you will know many things... Anyway, I invite everybody to join me if possible... spiritually or physically in trying to build a better, balanced, democratic world... in Nature/ God. In the highest reality, not in the Politically Correct Lies. Welcome to (part of) my view of reality. Part of, because the Ultimate Reality is Infinity (Infinite Possibilities) and no human being can put Infinity, all of Nature, all of the Universe, Cosmos) and all of the Great Creator in to such a small Vessel, like words... but for here and now we can (you and I) learn and understand enough of the truth in order to become alive, and much more... If you clean your mind of limiting believes, ignorance's, negative emotions, fear, greed and so on, you can reach a point where you will begin to have epiphany/ revelations... in being and becoming... in existence... in evolution, in creation... in Nature/God.

Existence... being and becoming is beyond being good or being bad... it is ultimately beyond being wrong or being right...It is a reason...it is a purpose... All the bad in the world is if it prevents, slows down, obstruct, blocks, corrupts... or reverses that purpose... The purpose of life... All the good in the world is if it helps to be fulfilled that reason, (to come true) that purpose... Being and becoming... being and becoming... Should I tell you or should I not... Oh! Yes or no... Tic-tac... Tic-tac... Remember... remember, all of your life what I am going to tell you now... Nobody... absolutely nobody has a monopole on truth/ reality...Nobody has a monopoly on Nature/ The Universe/The Cosmos...on the Ultimate Reality...on God... Some people can know/ understand more... even much more... maybe even see the Absolute... but they still don't have a monopole on truth, nature and so on... They do not have a monopole on the Ultimate Reality of the Universe/ Cosmos... on God. Between your very inner self and the Universe/ Cosmos is no middle man... Remember this...

Sure, there can be and are people that have traveled hell and heaven on our planet Earth under the beautiful sun rays of the life-giving Sun. They are the guiders and they are part of the Guiding Force. They have existed 100,000 years ago just like they exist now... Who has got eyes to see and ears to hear will know this...

If you find those things/ thoughts interesting, welcome to my reality. Read, study, meditate, contemplate, work, play, fight, struggle, love, hate, win, loose, have victory, change your life, don't change your life, etc. Do your best to be in being and becoming. Do your best to make the world a better place. If you want to do these things... come, walk with me.

Remember, I stand for true rights of the individuals, families, communities, democracy, nation states, cultures, European values, Human Values and I am particularly keen and in sympathy with a man named , (if history tells the truth) Joshua of Nazareth that died because he spoke many true things against oppression, corruption and inequities as an exception to the normal competition, conflict, war, lying, cheating, stealing, robbing, raping and killing that we humans have done in our struggle for domination and exploitation in order to try to avoid honest work and friendly/unfriendly competition (like a sport match between friends or a boxing match between enemies, or war). I appreciate him because he represents the exception to the rule...he represented love... love of life and human beings... for this he died in pain, torture and humiliation...This I must remember...

So, I believe that in one hand I am war (conflict), because I live on this planet where many people have fallen from on high to a lower state, but now I want to give you the good news, I believe in love... I believe in life... I believe in a natural, Godly life... I believe that the truth will overcome the lie.

So, if you are in sympathy with me in those feelings that I have, and you love the truth and life (the life energy inside of you and all the other living things on the planet)... we are together. Kilometers, miles or time and space don't matter... I can say in a metaphoric, symbolic, spiritual, even in a reality type of way that we are ONE. There is only ONE REALITY...

I want you to know that "here" where you read my words, I will try to share with you three (3) main groups of knowledge;

A) One group of subject's matter will give you, I hope, useful information that helps in fulfilling the individual potential at all levels, family, friends, business, community, culture, etc. (a clarity of perceptions, the ability to see, perceive) relations of personal growth, and other potentialities...

B) Second group of knowledge will be small articles on current events unfolding in the world today... (you must analyze them, try to learn something from them). Some of my views on past events and some of my views about the possible future events. Past, present and future...

C) Three a mixture of everything from all times for all times...something more than I can explain here, now in a few words... Let's say a total Sum of all parts that transcendent the aggregate and hopefully helps you towards the Ultimate Reality in the Absolute, that which for me cannot be put into words... INFINITY... The No Name God with The No Name Religion... Simple stuff...Don't worry about it... be happy.

By the way, I have been born in Europe under the Christian Religion (Christian Culture) and I live pretty much in the No Name Religion just like the people lived 100,000 years ago under the No Name God, the Creator of the Universe/Cosmos. And God is ONE in the Absolute. Who likes me/accepts me, it is good and who does not...it is not... In the end all is perfect... the perfection, perfects itself... So, everything is ok. What do you think?

Until next time, good bye!!! With respect, Robert Freemann.
