

Stealing and...The Stealers / Thieves

For some people stealing is an art form... a passion. It is the highest form (for them) of self-affirmation and the satisfaction of all of their needs (real or imagined) like; greed, narcissism, satisfaction of grandiose illusions, of sadistic-masochistic pleasures, etc. Mostly if they have success in lying, in deceiving (the show), in stealing, in killing... basically in Lordship over others, they desire the material rewards only for themselves, in a selfish type of way... to have the pie and to eat it to... but only them and no other. Then, if they do have success in their own mind (symbolic) or in reality as an actual fact (victory), they feel like they are some kind of supreme beings... like some kind of gods... in their own mind. They seem to forget that they are affected by age, disease, pain, gravity, heat, cold, disillusion/ illusion, and that their mouths stink just like everybody else... They build an illusion around themselves and they live their own life in self deceit. It is also one of the main reasons that keeps them lying to themselves and to everybody else all the time.

That is why, when they humiliate other people... other people values (mostly working people values and family values of normality) and morals, religion or culture... When they Lordship over the normal productive people, by lies and deceit (manipulation, or by the power of incorrect/ oppressive Laws, or by false interpretation of religion and/ or false science theories, all "Politically Correct" lies...) or by tyranny... they actually feel good about themselves. It is their victory and affirmation... over humanity, over normal productive working man/ woman... over Creation/ Nature/ God that validates them in their own mind.

When the normal, productive people, that without knowing (in their innocents, naivety and ignorance) the ugliness/sickness that hides inside of those Lords of Darkness admire them... it becomes for them, the supreme false confirmation to themselves as some kind of "little gods" (Satana's). And at that time they became convinced of their own superiority even if everything is based on illusions, on a mirage... on a bunch of lies.

They consider that that "assumed false personal superiority"... even if they have received that position by "bending over" to serve, or get served/fucked by others... in their own hellish route to Earthly most basic/materialistic forms of success... They consider that they are the best, the smartest, the elites of the world... How is this done? The answer is easy... I will explain... By nepotism, by a rigged/ rigid system, by secret contracts, by corrupted judges/ lawyers, by corrupted priests, by corrupted teachers, by corrupted doctors, by corrupted policemen, by corrupted politicians, by corrupted businessmen, etc... All those corrupted people participate in the show... to blind and exploit the normal productive working people... and so on.

I want to state very clearly that not all of those people from this professions (mentioned above) are dirty and corrupted. I want to state clearly that it is enough for just a minority (lets say 10%) to collaborate under the table in order to obtain undue/ incorrect influence and maybe even gain control of the game (rig the game) and to prevent the correct advancement of (all or most) of the correct people in all of those professions in a strategic and logistics type of way... in the hierarchy of things/ institutions.

That means that if you are for example a correct policeman you will not advance, be promoted correctly in your department... unless either you sell your self or have "the right politically correct" support from some of your superiors, mentors, uncles, lovers, etc.??? It does not matter how good you really are (in 90% of cases) in your job. If you do not have the "right support"... you will not get that promotion that you deserve by correct right, by your own merits. Understand? In this way and by similar methods most normal correct people are kept in their "right place", aka; down and controlled in most institutions/ bureaucracies (secular or religious) of the world. This is true in most places, systems in today world. This are the facts, not fiction...

I will mention one more truth that is very important in the keeping down of normal people by the liars/corrupted ones. The mechanism is a simple one, in order to control and exploit the overwhelming majority of productive people by a few. They will buy you (part of the normal productive working class people), by bigger salaries and some privileges... compared with the normal/civilian population with the express/ direct conditions for you to ask no questions, obey all orders blindly, and to be without pity in your dealings with the normal people, in a ruthless type of way. It becomes your job to keep the people down, and if you don't do it, you will lose your privileges, because they will send someone bigger (higher up) than you, to beat/ punish you... They keep you in check in between your little/big privileges and punishment... by fear and if necessary by disciplinary action... punishment. Think about this. Democracy or tyranny? What do you want to promote in your life? What is the solution to this situation? A very simple one. Support, promote and struggle/ fight for Basic Human Rights, for Democracy and support all correct laws and true justice... In order for all men/women to benefit, in mutual assurance, including you and your own family. Support all those that fight for human rights and democracy against tyranny. Remember that the working people are the foundation of the community and of human prosperity, including your salary. For normal people safety comes in numbers, in their own community. This is the factual truth. Individual rights, family rights, community rights. Don't allow the federal/ central power ever to command the local power. Change the laws in order to protect people and families... and most importantly the children from their corrupting power.

Remember the Hitler's, Stalin's and Mao's (of the world) and their powers by the Central power/ control of the central government and the terrors of the secret not so secret mind/propaganda police over the people... Remember all the millions of innocent normal people/ families falling victims to them. All governments, if they have too much power over the people, will abuse their own power over the people. That is why people shall always take back the power when the government abuses the people and punishes them through incorrect/abusive laws. Without a very powerful central power those atrocities and control/ terror of any kind (federal, communist, fascist, etc.) it can not be done in such a large scale. It is the "centralization of power" that makes the biggest atrocities possible. The last century has shown to us, to mankind, that when a few people centralize power in a few hands of a minority of people terrible tyranny always happens... It does not matter so much what political system is used by the tyrants/ psychopaths... Always keep this in your mind all the time...Don't ever forget.

The power, democratically, must remain in the hands of the people, preferably like in 1800's in America/ United States of America. The people shall have the power in Human Basic Rights and in Democracy.

More than this, they have created rules and laws (a "counter culture", a "Politically Correct" propaganda) in order to oppose the friendly and/or hostile natural conflict/ competition (the natural hierarchy?) of productive normal people and their values and traditions that have always existed among men and women in order to find the true merits of people and create the pro-productive, pro-evolution hierarchy that have helped humanity to evolve and survive along the length of time in traditional communities/ societies by true merit mostly... Not by politically correct social theories/ experiments and false social constructs.

Remember that the original communities/ civilizations were mostly heterogeneous, not multicultural or multi-ethnic. Mixing people up by force does not work. So, the people actually didn't need through out time... nor did they appreciate false people, parasites, predatory people, etc... or false ideologies in their own families and /or communities. Everything actually changed with the beginning of the so-called Age of Kingdoms/ Empires... of the so called Modern Civilization/ High Cultures which needed/ promoted oppression/repression and slavery/subservience, exploitation on a large scale... The True Age of Oppression and inhuman exploitation... have actually, mostly begun in the last 8000 to 5-6000 years ago. Think about that.

So, in order to be more precise, I will tell you one of the biggest secrets in the world which contradicts everything that you have been told all your life, mostly in school, but also everywhere... One of this secrets is the fact that many people that didn't live in the so called High Cultures were actually more civilized in the true sense of the word than the so called "civilized ones"... That is one of the major reasons that we have been taught and educated (?) that the so called barbarians of Europe were "bad" and good for nothing. Let me give you a historical question/ example that maybe will help you to understand what I am trying to show you.

Do you really think that an Egyptian slave/worker/normal worker, man/woman was better off than a European man/woman of a normal people tribe that was living in Old Europe, in the North Black Sea area in 8000-6000-3000 B.C. in an egalitarian community/ society that had bread, wine, meat (dogs, cows/ beef, sheep, goats, pigs, horses, etc.), fruits, honey, houses, temples, villages, big markets, mountains, plains, forest, rivers, eventually milk and cheese, etc., at their disposal, in their daily life... and they didn't even need walls/ fortifications to defend themselves, because they were strong enough and the true masters over their own work, farms, animals and lands? What do you think? Who do you think was living better?... I think we have been lied to in a spectacular style by the biggest liars/historians of the world... Think about it. Think about that.

Who do you think was better off, the "pre-civilized" people of Europe or the "civilized" people of "the cradle of civilization" and Egypt?... I have to repeat my self. I think we have received some very corrupted, false knowledge/ history from our "historians" and teachers as to which civilization teaches which civilization a better way of life, prosperity and human dignity. What do you think? Who lies and who tells the truth?

Which lands do you think were more free 5000 years ago, approximately 3000 B.C. in this world? Old Europe or the Middle East Civilizations? And which lands do you think where the lands of corruption/swords and war, social inequity, tyranny, torture, slavery and pain? Which lands are the epicenter of pain and corruption in known history? Which lands have fought the most for freedom and equality, for the last 5-6000 years? In which cultures and lands do people believe more (not all the people, but most) in tolerance and Basic Human Rights? Which cultures are more egalitarian and pro-working people values/ethics? Do you begin to see the truth in your own mind now? Look on the map of the World? From which lands, religions, cultures comes the most religious/political intolerance's? From the "unholy land" of pain and exploitation... From ancient Ur, from ancient Babylon, from ancient Egypt, etc. Look in true factual history... just events... not interpretations. Just wars, dates, who attacked who... by what methods and for what?

Look at one more thing... which countries produce through work and productivity and which ethnic, religious, cultural groups/armies have always attacked/infiltrated them in order to exploit and predate them? If they were not able to do it by armies, then by the way of lies and deceit, by infiltration/begging and/or sabotage. By a Trojan Horse... By parasitism and by predation... Always and forever, is all the same story... Some people want to work and mind their own business and other people just want to take the results of their work by lies, laws and/or brute force. Facts not fiction... Look around your self and see who is doing what?

Let me come back to the Stealers/ Thieves and to stealing everything that they can... From the childhood of children, to high technology. From the stolen lives of the unborn (by killing them), all the way up to the very life and mind of humanity. From birth to the grave. These thieves steal everything... everything. Yes, I am talking about, from your very life energy from inside of you, to your very own mind, which is not yours anymore. If you don't believe me listen to this. Hacking is an illegal activity punishable by law. Correct? Then what shall we say when we hear that now they want to hack the human body/ genome... reprogram our genes... hack us... our bodies and minds... all through the mRNA/ DNA technology? I know... we shall say in truth...CRIMES AGAINST HUMANITY... What will come after this? What is next? Sooner or later justice and retribution will come... But until then, if you will do nothing, I will say to you..."Wake up and smell the coffee"... the hacking of the human body and mind is in progress and the next goal of some or most of the Stealers/ Thieves... is to create total tyranny...

The body and mind Stealers...The Body Snatchers... I shall tell you, just about now, that I make a big difference between the occult and not so occult (out in the open) methods of mass control, oppression, exploitation, etc., that has been used and advanced in the manipulation of partial (manipulated truth) of institutionalized monopoly religions by a small group of "insiders" as well as the partial (manipulated truth) of controlled monopoly of institutionalized science, also by a small group of "insiders". Those two (2) powers, partial religion and partial science, have for a very long time controlled, oppressed (even punished, tortured or killed) exploited most of the human population in most "civilized" so called countries... But remember that almost or most of the time in most historical times, part of the people (the majority) was/were able to have some of their own thoughts, some freedoms, some basic human rights and most free men and women were able to have some kind of, or total ownership over their own body's, families and communities. Usually, the more weapons and tools they did have at their own means/disposal (in that culture/ country/ community). As well as a desire to fight and work for their own rights to survive be free and happy, the more they did have those things; survival, freedom, happiness, etc. Do you understand? Do you see what I am talking about? It was never total control of a few against the many in reality. Because the many have always have tools... deadly tools/arms...near by... So the leaders/nobles/ aristocrats have always made promises (many promises) and payed for most services throughout history to the people and have rewarded the people for their cooperation in most historical times in order to get their co-operation/ work. That they have many times lied is an other issue altogether to discuss an other time. Only in some Hollywood people heads/ minds, false history, lying/propaganda movies, distortion of historical reality is this possible to conceive... It is true that with the advance of technology and with the social distancing/ separation that is promoted more and more in between social classes because of multiculturalism/ multi-ethnicity, social manipulation, have become possible in the last century or so to ignore the masses by turning one group against an other, etc... By divide and conquer. By big armies and big police states. By Federal power/ Communism/ Fascism/ Capitalism, etc. Up until now, until very recent times they have always needed the collaboration of the working population of European descent to get things done. After all, we have put the entire world at their feet...No, they, "the few", have only now recently have decided to move against us, and betray us in force, in this total extreme way. Until just a few decades ago they needed us. Understand?

In order to understand, in a simplified form, this terrible truth and recent social changes that happen in the last 50 to 100 years you must understand three major things/ changes mostly out of a myriad of things.

1st.) Because our technology and mass production have advanced to very high productivity levels, because of our work and inventivity in a world wide network/ globalism (by our workers, engineers and warriors, by us) we have brought the world to "their" feet (our bosses feet)... It is done...A fact a comply... Facts not fiction.

2nd.) The technology and production have been moved in a large scale in the last 50-40-30 years mostly, outside of Europe and USA (mostly from all of the European countries or most of them and from were the European descendants have founded countries) which is also generally speaking the place(s) of original invention and original production.

3rd.) They think that they no longer need all of us... So, they have decided that they can replace us with more subservient/ submissive workers (for more money, profits, etc.)... without keeping all of those promises that they have been making (over the centuries, over millennia) to our forefathers, grandfathers, to our fathers and to us. So, we have become expendable to them in their own mind... This is to say the least of it... For right now... Think about that.

So, more or less freedom, or human rights did go up and down in the last 5-6000 years in different places at different times, victory, defeats, death... life, etc. Like a tug of war game, back and forth...Between us the little people and them. I do see all of this historically and as I look at the world today...

But now (2020-2022), as I see what is happening in the world... I can tell you that before, in the past, if you were aware and ready to run/ change your location, or fight/ work you did have the chance to make a life for your self and your family, almost in all societies (human communities)... a better life...a new beginning... this was before... Before the year 2020.

But now, in 2022 we have no place to run... The world has become too small for us... By technology they desire to obtain the final victory over mankind (humanity) which is to hack, steal, humiliate, in-prison, destroy the human body, mind and soul forever... Beginning with us, the creators and workers... By Informatics, computers, biotechnology and so on... NGO's, Governments, Corporations, etc. It seems that many of the leaders of today, or most of them want, for a reason or another, to reduce the human population (beginning with us and our families), control in totality the independence of the human body, mind and soul of all of humanity, etc. What do you think about this? This are facts not fiction. Think deeply and clearly about it.

If we were not able to see them so clearly, and hear their own public statements (and read their books), and see their own actions trough the governments, police, etc... We would have probably not believed it... That this situation is real. I can sincerely say/state that we seem to exist in some kind of science-fiction movie or novel (in a nightmare), because we just need to see some of "the news" and its all there in front of our eyes... everywhere, all the time 24/7,more and more.

The reality of the last two years (2020-2022) is so unbelievable, but yet so real... that many people refuse to believe it... they are in a shock... or they refuse to accept reality. It is too painful for them. The "betrayal" is to big to conceive...The good part is that hundreds of millions... billions of people have begun to wake up... a giant is waking up... what do you think is going to happen from now on? In the very near future?

What are you going to do? Tic, tac...Tic, tac...The clock is thicking.

They say in the Bible that God The Creator has Created the Creation in six periods of time (God's Day's). They say that in the 7th Day "It rested". They are wrong...He/It was not resting... Nature/God never rests... We can say in a way that He was only watching the human foolishness...so to speak. But listen to this. I want to tell you that a giant is waking up... remember this... I will show/reveal to you something...

This 01-01-2022 is the beginning of the 8th period of time (God Day)... we are now entering on/in the 8th Day of Creation (period of time), the ending of the beginning and the beginning of the end.

8th Day/Period of Time and Space is when nobody will have any place to hide. It is the reckoning... the final conflict... we cannot run away from them... and "they" will not be able to run away from us... One way or an other... We will settle the score...

All 6000 years of it... By 2045 I guarantee everything will be settled. But the confrontation has already started by a preemptive strike from them... The enemy of humanity is in the lead, has already given the preemptive strike and hit (many will die and be crippled)... slowly but surely humanity will strike back... Watch... the Angels will rise... the Dark Knights will lose... they are going to lose everything... So be it.

The Angels Will Rise (Sons of God)... Humanity Will Rise... The dark knights will fall... The sons of Saitaina will fall forever in the abyss... in nothingness... in nihilism. So be it.

The Sons of God, The Sons of The Prime Creator will rise in the glory of light... and the sons of darkness, Saitaina, will fall... this is their final fall... The Last Fall... in the abyss... in nothingness. So be it.

The errors will be restrained and wiped out. So be it.

Divine Destiny... Being and Becoming... Choose your side carefully and don't worry... You will not be able to avoid this... not this time. Free choice you will have... The option to run or hide?... No. You will not have the option to run or hide. Watch and see. So be it.

The Armour, Shield and Sword of God (arm yourself now)... and their importance is a mystery... If you do want to have the fighting chance to live, survive, be free and happy you shall study/ train in the 15+1 Guide Lines of Man and prepare yourself first (by studying and actively training), your family and your community. Do you understand? Remember this fact, this truth. If you are a policeman, or in the military or part of any government (or whatever function/ power that you do have, religious or secular) in any organization/ corporation when you take your clothes off your own body you are just a man or woman just like us the little people... So, whatever is going to affect us the little people, sooner or later it will affect you and your own families... Don't forget that... So choose very carefully and do the right thing by the people for the people. We do not want anymore tyranny and if they have pushed so hard for a reset, I believe "The Great Reset" will come for them... But not the way that they have planned and envisioned for themselves... That is why it is your job and duty beginning from this moment to represent your true family and your true community and begin to restrain, minimize and bring to justice all the psychopaths of the world as soon as possible by any means necessary. Begin doing this from inside of your own self, from your own job, from your own family, from your own community/ religion, etc. I am sure you understand what I am saying. If we do not do this... it is possible for the human race to perish by our free choice. By doing nothing. We have enough biological weapons and nukes... to do that. More than this, we also have all those "bright"/Dark people that want to play gods... So, it is enough for one little mutated virus to escape from their bright/ intelligent laboratory/experiments to wipe out the whole human race. You can think of me as being extreme... I don't mind... But I think that there will soon come a time when humanity is going to smash them and all of their stupid shit... including a complete shut down of all technology and/or corporations that threatens humanity by their actions and existence. Do you understand?

Until next time, Good luck to you! And may God bless you.
