

Just doing my job
Just following orders

Make your place/location/family/job place/community clean and holy.

OK!...Oh man! Oh man! This is going to be hard/difficult for me to explain/write and is going to be hard for you to read/ accept/ understand. Why? Because the ideas/ subject that I am going to describe/ explain is going to offend your false self (your false ego) and your own false rationalizations will try to defend your own false super-ego... In other words, the truth is many times unpleasant, even painful because it destroys the lies and self illusions that a person builds for its own self (for commodity and comfort). In order to live with its own self after he/she accepts and do what they shall have not done (a bad did that harms their own conscience and/or other people). Or when a person does not do what they shall have done if they have acted in their good/correct conscience and correct intentions towards their own self and/or towards other people. This is a "normal" reaction if you do have what is called a conscience because you do not want to feel guilty of wrong doing. So, you lie to your self, that everything that you do or do not do is perfectly alright and OK even when you very well know that is not OK.

Then there is an other type of person that is handicapped... They don't have what is called a conscience. Just like some people are born blind or retarded in their own mind. Those people usually just do their best to hide from people the fact that they don't have a conscience and act/mimic like they are normal people. But they are not... Being incomplete (without conscience)... they are true psychopaths (and good actors) and can do bad/ evil things that normal people will not do normally. In order to satisfy their own goals at any cost... Including when they are in power/authority they teach/ order/ force (or they just try to/ or buy normal people by money/salaries or bribes, or black mail and/ or threats) their subalterns to do incorrect and/or inhuman acts against other people. Many times they do this from behind the scenes because they are cowards and desire for other people to take the fall/ blame if things are found out... etc. I believe you do get the idea of what I am talking about...

If you are in the first category (people with conscience) by opening your mind and accepting the truth, even if it bruises your own ego, you will be able to adapt, learn and change your self for the better (heal yourself) if you begin to progressively train/ study your self in a brave/ honest way. You only need thinking and effort in honesty in progressive increments in order to advance your self. From darkness towards the light... From weakness to strength... From worst to better... and so on. But you have to make a conscientious decision in order to do it and even risk your self (have courage) for the truth and life in order to stand up to the evil that confronts us almost every day. So, please have an open mind as you read the rest of this article/letter.

Now before I continue with this letter/article, I want to specify to you the reader that because we are living in very turbulent/confused/painful/evil time and because we are all in great danger of losing our very own humanity and maybe even our very own existence as a species, as the human species...When I say ALL of us, it includes ALL of you... Yes, even you, the most rich/powerful (???) people of the world as well as us the little people of the world... I want to address you first... from the most hidden and not so hidden spiritual/ religious/ political ideologues to the most educated/ conditioned/ not-so-educated professionals of the world in a way that maybe will help you to understand and motivate you to change the dangerous course/ direction of action that we are all moving towards right now by the choice of a few... or better said against our own choice... I am addressing all of you, from big people to the small people of the world and I can share with you a small secret, before I continue with the story, about my self so you can understand me better. Listen to this. I feel old, very old... I feel like I have already lived a few thousands years of life... I have done at one time or at an other time just about anything that a man can do on this planet... from the physical plane to the spiritual plane and back a few times... back and forth... back and forth... I have traveled the worlds... I can say in simplicity that I do not desire fame and material fortune (only the normal things in life)... I almost don't need nothing... only the small necessities of life are sufficient for me and nature/Guiding Force/God in my life...But I want for you to understand this... This planet is not here for you to destroy. The people of this planet are not here for you to mutilate, poison, torture, exploit, manipulate, humiliate, en-prison, exterminate/ kill with impunity... and to take much, much more than your share. Understand this... Everything has a price... Nothing is free... You will pay for everything that you do or you do not do... Understand? The payment is unavoidable/ inevitable. It will happen if you like it or not... If you believed or not, it is irrelevant. What you saw you shall reap. Wait and see. So be it.

I will now name the profession groups from up on down that I want to open their eyes and ears... to what I have to tell/share with you. First group contains invisible and visible priests/ pharaohs/ kings/ the elders/ highest teachers/ advisers, high warriors and the people (economists/materialists) that own the majority of the major banking/ major corporations stocks of the world... aristocrats/ oligarchs, etc... Remember and do not forget, that I am very old... Remember that I am no body... but yet I am everybody... Remember that I am here among you... Please forgive me if I seem to bold... I hope that you do not think in a negative way about what I have to say. I hope that you do understand that time has no more patience with us... and that you can choose now at the last moment to be with the people and not against the people.

I sincerely hope that you will find the power and balance in side of your self in order to overcome your false self in order to sincerely desire to help the people... to maybe even put on the side some of your arrogance/ domination, suffering/ vengeance and emptiness in order to help in the restoration/ healing of mankind and the world. This represents and describes the highest echelons of the world... They influence and control indirectly and directly many things in the world (attention: but not everything) including the current events/crisis. So because you do have this pre-eminent position in the world I will humbly ask you... Please help us to build a better world and community based on individual freedom with responsibility, with healthy families, in healthy communities that have their own distinct cultures and histories. Please help us to search and discover the truth of our evolution... the real truth of our past (not the politically correct lies) in order to overcome the lies. In a world with no slaves and inhuman exploitation... Lets do the right thing and dismantle slowly and orderly (not in war and conflict) all the things that exploit, incorrectly control, destroy humanity, the animals and fauna... the world. It can be done... and it will be done. So be it.

Next I will like to mention the politicians, university professors, doctors/scientists of all kinds, judges/ lawyers, economists, psychologists, sociologists and other government bureaucrats (including all the intelligence communities, and federals, etc.) and the big NGO's of the world. Also the MASS MEDIA including the internet, social media and A.I. (artificial intelligence, the power of the algorithms). Those are the intermediate echelons of the world that rule directly/ indirectly influence the world now... Including the high tech corporations in computers and in biotechnology/ biology/ chemicals/ biochemicals, engineering of all kinds, etc. You must be aware (or maybe not) of what is above yourself, being intelligent professionals/ people and you must be aware that you are chosen from the people and belong in all reality to the working class even if you do have a good salary and a better social position/job. Don't become a Judas Iscariot that sold/ betrayed Jesus for 30 pieces of silver... Please don't do that... And please don't ever forget that the betrayers always regret and get their punishment sooner or later... For those in Mass Media I want to tell you that you are in double danger. First, if the world will become a tyranny most of your privileges will be over and you will never again have the sweet life that you do have now. Second, if the people are going to win in this conflict and they will find out what you have been doing... how you have sold them out and lie to them for a fist full of dollars... I can tell you only this... I don't want to be in your shoes when that will happen... Understand? My sincere advice to you is that you begin quickly to rapport the truth and do your real/correct job and get quickly on the side of the people for the people. Help change the madness. Remember that everything that you write is visible. If you can not write the truth under your own name at least warn the people under anonymity.

Probably your parents/ grandparents, uncle/ aunts, were normal people (working class) and your brothers and sisters to. And most importantly your children will have to exist/ live their life's in the world that you... YES, you, will leave behind yourself for them. What kind of world do you want to leave to your children? Don't you want for them to be able to also have children when their time comes, when they grow up? I want for you to remember this, that most of you, even if you are exceptional in your abilities/ intelligence/ creativity and or physical prowess (if you are in the police or military, etc.)... You must remember that if you do not defend human rights, democracy, the rights to chose what we do inject or take in to our own bodies or not inject or take in to our own bodies... If you do not defend individual/ family rights, community rights, etc... in the end you and your family will be affected to... Your family will also pay the price... So, I will now also ask of you... all of you people of these second echelon (and third echelon) of worldly power to do the right thing and do your best to stop the madness.

What can you do? Let me give you a simple answer. You can do many things directly and right now...

Begin by fighting corruption from the inside in your own job, in your own community, by exposing the corruption, don't wait for me, or for some type of Messiah, Christ or same kind of miraculous Savior to come from the sky, from outside of this world to destroy you (or the corrupt ones)... Because you are also part of the corruption... human error... Don't wait for somebody else to come clean up your shit. Do it yourself for yourself. If the evil is too strong in that place where you are, send an SOS signal/ send the necessary information for people to find out the truth and help will come to you in order to help you to fight your/ our own battles. Bring the light upon corruption/ evil and struggle/ fight it/ resist it... scream out loud, so more people can hear it/ see it/ identify it, fight it... and we will come to your call to help you to extinguish that inequity. Take written, video/ audio evidence of all wrong doing/ corruption. Send it to other people. Expose it. Use technology in our favor... We must not allow technology to be used only against our own interests. Look around you and build alliances, build bridges, built networks with other correct/good people... Whatever you do, do not stand alone in loneliness and inactivity as a result of social distancing, masks, etc. Don't be shy... Communicate... Be smart... Be an active agent of good... Take the name of this web site and give it to as many people as possible so they can also study the truth and to be well informed. Collect all the sources of truthful information and share it with as many people as possible so they can escape from the web of lies. Understand? Every day you can help someone if you really want to. YOU ARE NOT POWERLESS... You have just been feed a bunch of lies in order for you to believe that you are powerless. Be active and you can help to change the laws... you can change the world. If we stand united nothing can stop the people from fulfilling their own destiny.

We must all contribute in this fight in every and in each own/new generation, from one generation to the next, until the end of times. We will change everything. Watch and see, if you don't believe.

The role of the family protector, the father and the mother, in the community defense and of the necessity of eliminating the moles (traitors, parasites and predators) from among us is greater then ever... The elimination of the evil ones (sick, liars, incomplete people) from the control of the system/ the institutions/ bureaucracies/ organizations/ Schools/Universities, private and public (government) is an absolute necessity. It must be done and it will be done. Their corrupting/poisoning influence must be brought to an end. So be it. We need truth just like we need to breath air, just like we need to drink clean water when we are thirsty.

That means the change must begin from your own self, from your own family, from your own neighborhood, from your own community, from your own home which is the most socially important place for you. From your work/ education/ place... from your own job. Yes, that is right... Do that and the world will be a better place for you and for all.

Eliminate the corruption from your job first, from your own profession and the world will become a better world for your own self, for your own family, for your own community and for everybody else worldwide.

Number one evilness/ corruption/ suffering comes from all "the wrong" that is done by you and accepted by you in your own job/profession. You sell your own principles, ethics (the correct good ones) for personal gain at the expense of others... or if you do not do it personally/directly, then you keep quiet and permit others to do it in order to not lose your job and in order to gain maximal benefits/ profits for your self. You rationalize your absence of scruples/ correctitude/ ethics and morals by doing and accepting wrong/ corruption/ evil... in hypocrisy, in your own cowardliness, in your own greed, in many ways. By cheating, by lying, by saying "I am just doing my job"... by saying "I am just following orders"... etc. Do you understand that from you begins everything? We are all, or most of us, guilty of doing nothing. Yes we are.

That is why somebody intelligent (like Upton Sinclair) has stated "it is hard for a man to see the truth (understanding something?), if the truth (understanding something?) stands in the way of/ blocks his paycheck". Understand? Don't sell yourself short of the truth. Don't play stupid. Don't act like you don't understand. Because you do...

Another important rationalization/excuse that covers much evil/corruption is this: "I don't do anything wrong"... or "I can do nothing, I don't have power to change anything". Have you done something to change anything? Have you? No more excuses. Just do it... beginning now. Promise your self now in this moment that you will change your self, clean your self and do your best to make the world a better place beginning with you.

If you are among those that have done things directly to make the world a better place you are not included in this statements... because you are an exception in today's world. We need more people that are fighting the corruption in this world. But don't worry things are getting so bad that even the blind will begin soon to see what time it is. From my experience I can tell you that even most (not all) cowards fight in the end... when the knife reaches the bone. Even a rat or mouse if you push him in a corner in the end he/she will try to bite you... This I have seen with my own eyes.

Up to now in this letter/ article I have spoke to/ addressed, lets say the leadership of our society world wide... But it is not correct to put the blame only on them... Because we the people are the great majority and it means that in all actuality we have most of the true power and blame to carry... It is our fault that we have allowed our self to be pulled from/ to lose (by money, comfort and by decadence/laziness) our own ways, the cultural values, historical values, spiritual/religious values, and our moral/ethical values of our parents, of our grandparents... of our ancestors. It is true that it didn't happen without the loss of wars and revolutions, without pain and suffering... It is also true that it didn't happen without a good plan of exploitation on their side for many generations... But lets not forget and find to many excuses for our self, that mostly and by far as long as we have stayed in a hard working philosophy and a clean religion/ spirituality in a private way... in our individual private Christian believes. To be honest we have been able to have the strongest communities on earth and build a destiny for ourselves everywhere. The corruption/ weakness that "they" have promoted generation after generation have corrupted us little by little (beginning with our children) because we have allowed ourselves and our children "to fall in the abyss" in small increments at the time up until now... Little bit by little bit. Now we are in big, big trouble... What can I say more to describe the situation? If even now you are lying yourself and don't see the reality of what is happening it means that you are truly blind... But if you are aware and do see what is happening then you must study, learn and apply the 15+1 Guide Lines of Man. Use them in order to understand everything even when you read (any religion/philosophy or science) or when you do something... If you do that you will live in truth by truth and you will become many times more stronger in the flow of life... Nature/God. We are guilty of everything, so we must change/ repair everything. Do you understand?

To be or not to be? It is a very serious question...

Now I want to simply tell you this... We have now entered the 8th DAY, period of time and despite all ads and all appearances we are going to win... We are going to change the world... we will restore the world and mankind in a natural/ Godly way. Those that accept the truth will struggle/ work and fight in this war... some of us will die... some of us have already died in what is happening now in the world. Our heroes, our martyrs (some known and some unknown). It is the price of life... Sweat and blood is the price of life... But we will die so others, our people will be able to live in true human dignity in our true human destiny in Nature/God with God/Nature...

Remember this, you must defend and avenge with justice all those people that speak the truth at all times. Watch out for their well being and if something bad happens to them you must live no stone unturned until the guilty party is found and punished including the ones that give the orders/teachings. Look in your community and world wide at the people like: Robert Malone, Michael Yeadon, Sucharit Bhakdi, Richard Urso, Geert Vanden Bossche, Wolfgang Wodarg, Scott Jensen, Arne Burkhardt, Walter Lang, Christina Baum... also look at the 17.000 doctors organization that have spoken the truth in the U.S.A. about this situation... Those great people are just a few of thousands of truthful people that have spoken the truth for humanity... I am very sorry that I don't have the possibility to mention here/ now all of them... But you must make your own list of your own true hero's... Protect them. Because they have spoken the truth now many bad people want to do harm to them. You must also become aware that mass media, social media and even Wikipedia is now influenced/ controlled by those who are payed to support/represent these political campaign against humanity. Keep that in your mind. I will also ask you to look very carefully at all of those politicians and bureaucrats that have always insisted in a forceful, lying, illegal ways to inject us by force and make a list with all of them in your own country (in every country is a death squat present). Just look for them and you will clearly see them. Look for a whole team because they are placed in all strategical/decision making positions. Watch careful and you will see them. So you the people will be able to change all of them and be able to bring them to trial and justice in every and each country. That is the only way that will teach them to never again move by force/ambush and illegalities against the people. They are all in violation of many laws and in violation of the Nuremberg Code. In all countries they have violated many laws and nothing is done by coincidence or by mistake... everything has been planed beforehand very meticulously and now we can see only some of the results/effects of death/sickness and is all to frightening...

Beginning now (2021-2022) in the next 21 years everything will change and the world will reach balance and health/healing again like long time ago. It will take time. But this is going to happen (the easy way [least probable] or the hard way, most probable). So be it. So prepare your self, family and even your community for what is coming.

May God/ Nature/ Life help you all, in all of your thinking and effort, in all of your struggle and fight, towards your survival, freedom and happiness...For your self, for your family, for your community and for the world in Nature/God with God/Nature.

What do you think? Tell me.

With respect Robert Freemann.
